

DC Solar for All Documentary #DCSolarStories

This Documentary celebrates how the District Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE), in collaboration with District Government, building developers, low-income housing organizations and residents are working together to reach Mayor Bowser's Solar For All target to provide 100,000 low to moderate income families with the benefits of solar energy.